Covid-19 Outbreak: The Elephant in the Room

Here are the elephant questions:

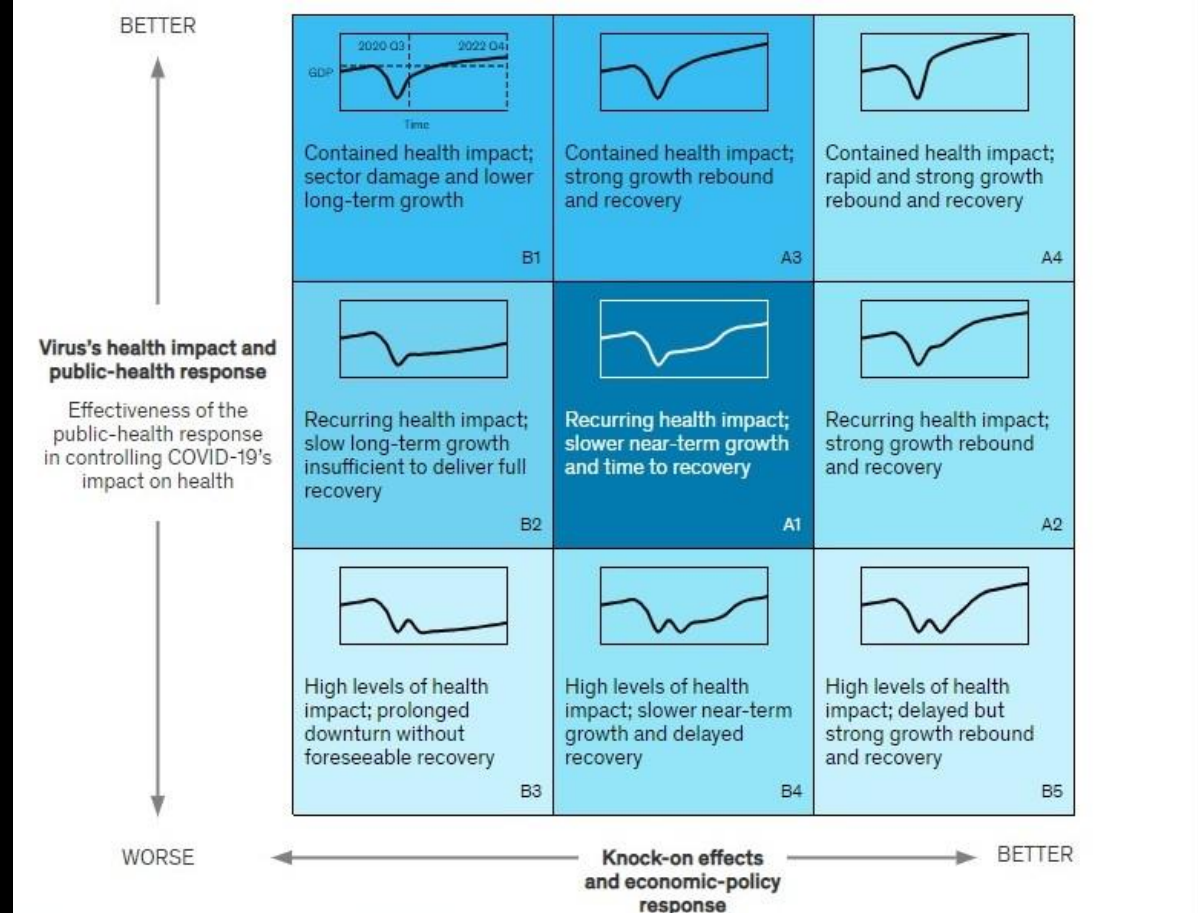

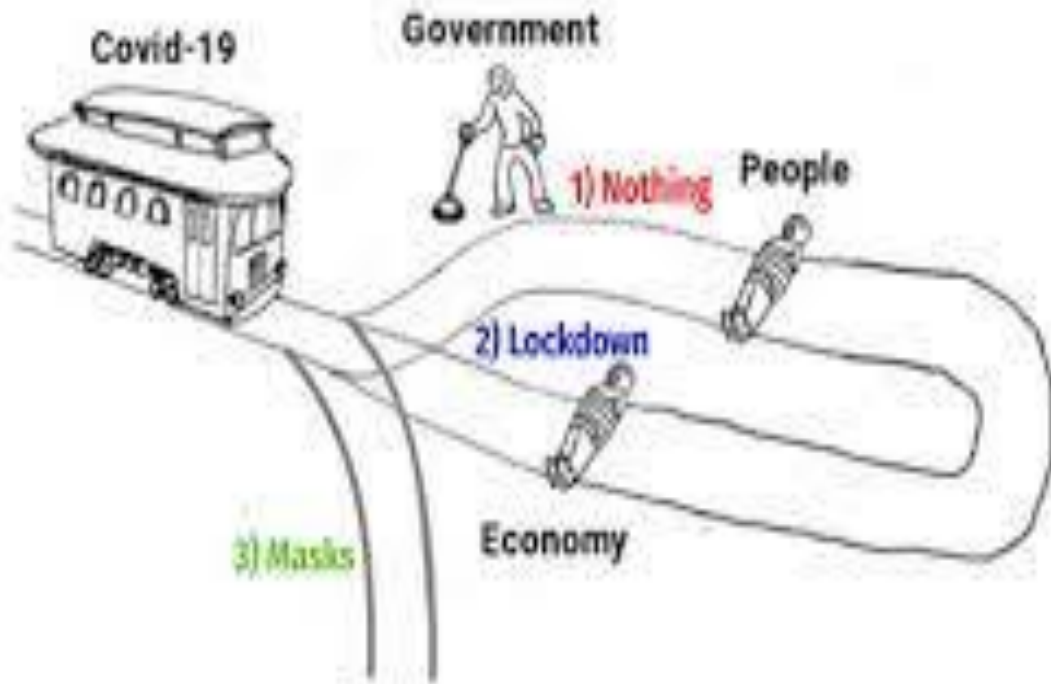

1. How big will the Covid 2nd wave in Indonesia?
2. Is it going to be the last wave?
3. What will be the condition in 2023?
4. How will Indonesia fared in comparison to other countries in dealing with Covid?
4. Who will be blamed?

What will Our 2nd Wave Look Like?

9 Scenarios of Health & Economic Recovery

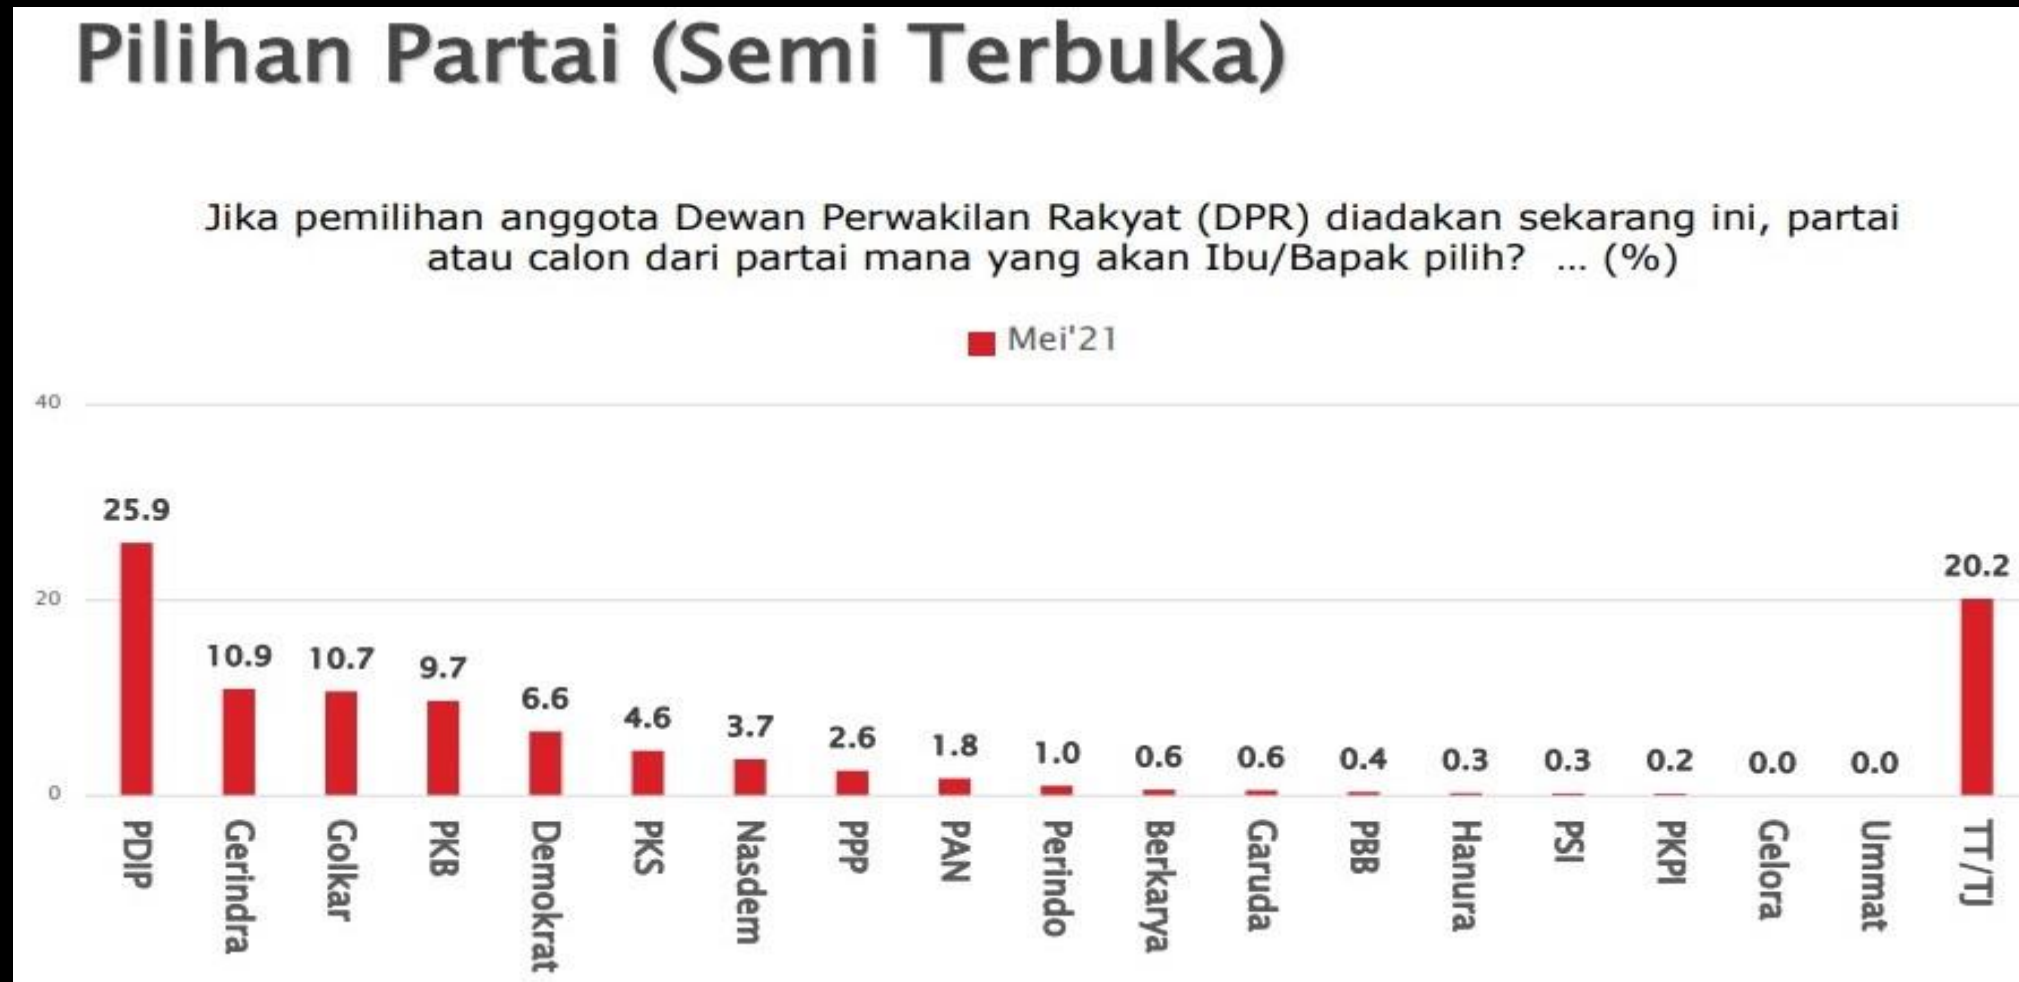

The trolley problem of Covid-19 and masks

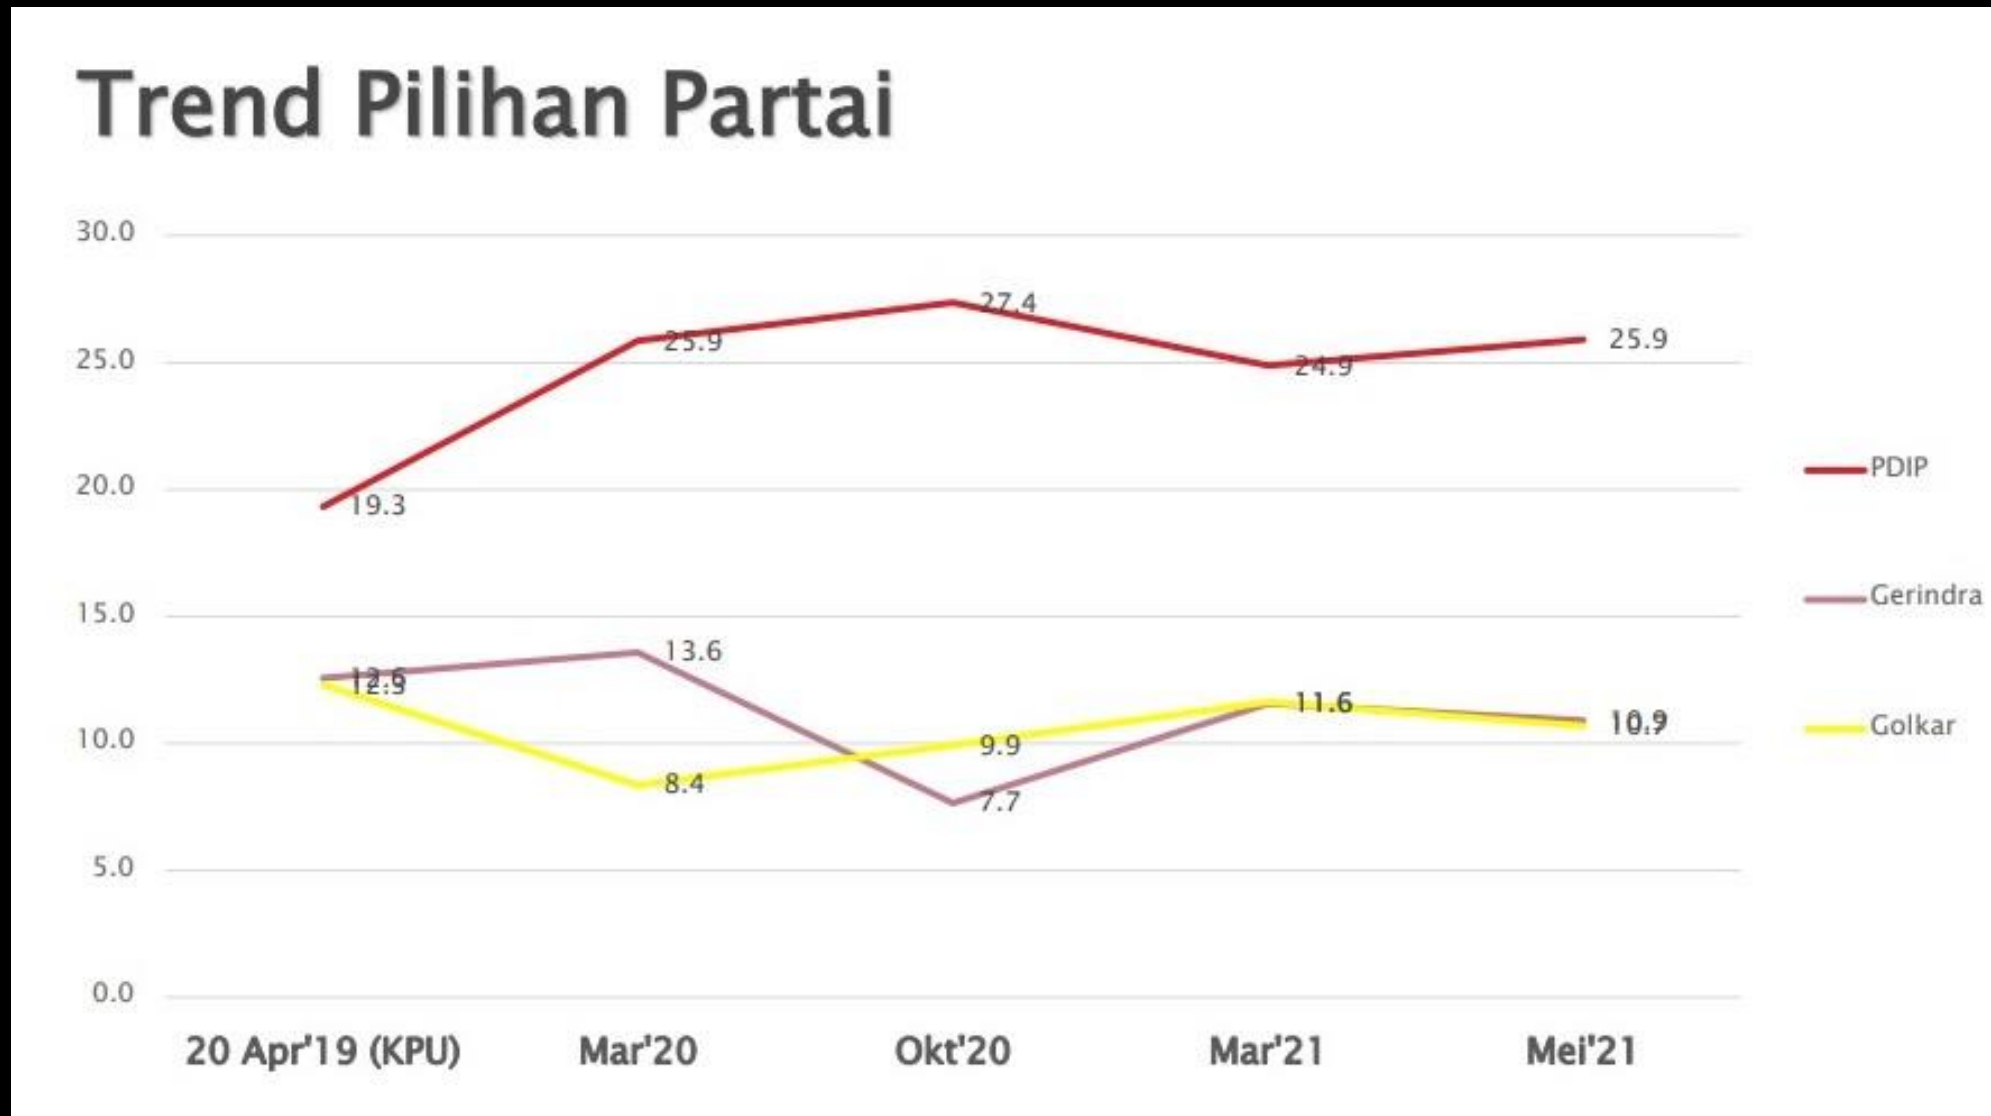

Background

1. According to our Constitution, only political parties have the right to propose Presidential Candidate (and his/her VP).
2. According to existing law, 2024 Presidential candidate is proposed by a political party or a coalition of political parties which in the 2019 general election have:
 - At least 20% seat in DPR or
 - Obtained more than 25% of votes.
3. Only PDIP can propose a presidential candidate alone as it controlled 22% of seats in DPR.
4. There are 9 political parties holding seats in DPR.
5. Current Government “coalition” consisted of 5 political parties holding 60% of the seats
6. Possible Presidential Candidates in 2024: 2 to 4
